August 13, 1-2:30 pm
Title: Beyond the Pandemic: The Future of Telehealth

Experts in practice and research will share their experiences and recommendations for the future in relation to the quality, costs and organization of telehealth. Health Committee Chair, Terry Gerratana, will lead session participants in a discussion of best practices, challenges, and opportunities.

Panelists: to be announced

August 20, 1-2:30 pm
Title: Food Insecurity and the Health of Older Adults: An Agriculture and Health Partnership

Representatives from the NY State Department of Agriculture and Markets and SUNY Downstate Medical Center will share the development, implementation, and evaluation of an initiative aimed at improving healthy eating among older adults. Health Committee Chair, Terry Gerratana, will facilitate a discussion of what other states are doing to address food insecurity in their communities.

Panelists:
- Kimberly Vallejo (invited) New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets, Director of Outreach, New York City
- Shirley Girouard, PhD, RN, FAAN, State University of New York Downstate Health Sciences University, Associate Dean for Research & Community Outreach; and Health Policy Consultant, CSG East
- Jelanie DeShong (invited), Director of Government Relations, State University of New York Downstate Health Sciences University