THE COUNCIL OF STATE GOVERNMENTS

Nariv Shah, Vice President of Social Finance, will speak on Tuesday, August 17 at 2 pm at the session titled Apprenticeships: A Pathway to Licensure.

Nirav works with nonprofits, governments, and private sector funders to develop and execute public-private partnerships to measurably improve the lives of people by scaling evidence-based social service programs. Nirav is working on projects to improve maternal and child health outcomes, expand access to permanent supportive housing for the homeless, and improving recidivism and workforce development outcomes for individuals with recent criminal convictions. Nirav has experience in the public and private sector.

Prior to joining Social Finance, Nirav worked in the Office of Management and Budget within the Executive Office of the President. Nirav spent the early part of his career working for Cambridge Associates, an investment advisor, and Bank of America. Nirav holds a M.A. in Public Affairs from the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs and a B.S. in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance from Boston University.
